Consumer Credit Improvement Agreement

➔ This is an agreement between Trinity Enterprises, LLC and _____.
 This agreement is good for a period of _____ months. The agreement becomes effective on _____ until _____ at which time all credit restoration services offered by Trinity Enterprises will cease. Trinity Enterprises, LLC offers credit restoration services to both consumer and commercial customers. Results vary based upon each individual's personal credit profile. Improvement may be seen as early as 60 days; but, a specific date cannot be projected or guaranteed.

A failure to pay your existing bills in a timely manner will cause this agreement to become null and void. Also, failure to meet deadlines in the credit action plan or dispute strategy will cause this agreement to become null and void. Failure to provide your credit repair specialist with updated information from your creditors, credit reporting bureaus or other entities as requested will cause this agreement to become null and void.

The charge for credit restoration services is _____ dollars and zero cents ($ _____). All postage expenses are included in the charge for credit repair services while this agreement is in effect. The client is responsible for any expenses associated with retrieval of credit reports. There shall be no other charge to the client. See attached Fee Schedule for all applicable charges.

There will be an additional charge to the client of $50 for any of the following:

- Late Payments per occurrence
- Cancelled / Returned Check
- Cancelled / Returned Credit Card Charge

retainer account will not be established and or maintained on my behalf and credit restoration services will not begin and or may be stopped until the escrow account is funded.

I understand that as services are completed and as hard costs are encumbered, my escrow account will be charged. At the completion of all services, the balance, if any, of the escrow account will be refunded to me.

If my account remains unpaid after 60 days, I understand it may be forwarded to collections.

Schedule of Services and Fees

I understand that my escrow account will be charged for the services referenced below as the services are rendered.

Service	Fee	Deemed Rendered
Credit Report	$35.00	During client on-boarding and shared with client
Credit Report Review and Plan Development	$35.00	During client on-boarding after initial phone consultation to determine client goals, timeframe, and budget
Account Setup	$50.00	Client profile created, plan entered, and plan initiation with processors
Materials Costs	$40.00	Forms, envelopes, printed letters, stamps, etc. prorated across processing rounds. Generally, client file experiences two-to-three rounds.
Monthly Maintenance	6 months @ $25 ea. ($150.00)	Review client credit monitoring to develop breakdown and monitor progress of plan and conduct monthly client call to review results and discuss next steps.
Credit Restoration	Balance of Retainer, if earned	The number of items corrected and or deleted per credit bureau x $50. If service fees + credit restoration earned exceed the retainer, the services rendered are greater than the retainer. The client will NOT be charged an additional fee.

Authorization to Release Information

I authorize Trinity Enterprises, LLC to obtain information regarding my credit file. I understand that any information obtained will be used by Trinity Enterprises, LLC and its agents, employees to attempt to improve my credit and will be kept confidential. I further authorize Trinity Enterprises, LLC to make changes on my credit file without prior notice during the time of this agreement.

SERVICE DISCLAIMER

Our services focus on the deletion of incorrect, negative items on your credit history. We cannot guarantee a specific point increase in your credit score calculated and provided by the credit bureaus.

Services are on a retainer basis, and Trinity Enterprises, LLC collects payment against retainer deposit after each service is rendered (i.e.: initial consultation, plan development, processing, postage, etc.).

In order for Trinity Enterprises, LLC (TEP) to provide optimal services, occasionally, TEP will need to share client information with lenders, realtors, and other third party entities and correspond (e.g., via e-mail, facsimile, phone, or written letter) with mortgage brokers and the referring source. By signing this consumer application, the consumer gives TEP the authority to share information with lenders, realtors, and other third party entities and correspond (e.g., via e-mail, facsimile, phone, or written letter) with mortgage brokers and the referring source as TEP deems necessary to provide credit restoration services.

Moreover, by signing this consumer application, the consumer gives Trinity Enterprises, LLC (TEP) the authority to share the results and successes of services provided by TEP to mortgage brokers, referring source, lenders, and other third party entities that TEP deems necessary in providing services.

CONSUMER SERVICE ACKNOWLEDGE

The consumer understands that he or she has retained TEP for credit restoration services. It is advised that the consumer shall not add or remove disputes to his or her credit file while TEP is performing credit restoration services. If changes are made by the consumer during his or her six-month contract with TEP, said changes shall be counted as work TEP has done because there is no way to tell who requested the removal.

CONSUMER CREDIT FILE RIGHTS UNDER STATE AND FEDERAL LAW

You have a right to dispute inaccurate information in your credit report by contacting the credit bureaus directly. However, neither you nor any credit repair company or credit repair organization has the right to have accurate, current, and verifiable information removed from your credit report. The credit bureau must remove inaccurate, negative information from your report if it is over 7 years old. Bankruptcy information can be reported for 10 years. You have a right to obtain a copy of your credit report from a credit bureau. You may be charged a reasonable fee. There is no fee, however, if you have been denied credit, employment, insurance, or rental dwelling because of information in your credit report within the proceeding 60 days. The credit bureau must provide someone to help you interpret the information in your credit file. You are entitled to receive a free copy of your credit report if you are unemployed and intend to apply for employment in the next 60 days, if you are a recipient of public welfare assistance, or if you have reason to believe that there is inaccurate information in your credit report due to fraud. You have a right to sue a credit repair organization that violates the Credit Repair Organization Act. This law prohibits deceptive practices by credit repair organizations. You have the right to cancel your contract with any credit repair organization for any reason within 3 business days from the date you signed it. Credit bureaus are required to follow reasonable procedures to ensure that the information they report is accurate. However, mistakes may occur. You may, on your own, notify a credit bureau in writing that you dispute the accuracy of information in your credit file. The credit bureau may not charge any fee for this service. Any pertinent information and copies of all documents you have concerning an error should be given to the credit bureau. If the credit bureau's reinvestigation does not resolve the dispute to your satisfaction, you may send a brief statement to the credit bureau, to be kept in your file, explaining why you think the record is inaccurate. The credit bureau must include a summary of your statement about disputed information with any report it issues about you. The Federal Trade Commission regulates credit bureaus and credit repair organizations. For more information contact: The Public Reference Branch, Federal Trade Commission, Washington, D.C. 20580. Our fees include paper, ink, internet, supplies, credit reports, forms, all phone calls, stamps and education on re-building your credit so you will have the maximum results. There shall be no other charges.

Connecticut Consumer Assurances and Fair Credit Reporting Act Notice

- You have a right to obtain a copy of your credit file from a credit rating agency. You may be charged a reasonable fee not exceeding five dollars for your first request in 12 months or seven dollars and fifty cents for any subsequent request in that same 12-month period. There is no fee, however, if you have been turned down for credit, employment, insurance or a rental dwelling because of information in your credit report within the preceding 60 days. The credit rating agency must provide someone to help you interpret the information in your credit file.
- You have a right to dispute inaccurate information by contacting the credit rating agency directly. However, neither you nor any credit repair company or credit service organization has the right to have accurate, current, and verifiable information removed from your credit report. Under the federal Fair Credit Reporting Act, the credit rating agency must remove accurate, negative information from your report only if it is more than seven years old. Bankruptcy information can be reported for 10 years.
- If you have notified a credit rating agency in writing that you dispute the accuracy of information in your file, the credit rating agency must then, within 30 business days, reinvestigate and modify or remove inaccurate information. If you provide additional information to the credit rating agency, the agency may extend this time period by 15 business days. The credit rating agency shall provide you with a toll-free telephone number to use in resolving the dispute.
- The credit rating agency may not charge a fee for this service. Any pertinent information and copies of all documents you have concerning an error should be given to the credit rating agency.
- If reinvestigation does not resolve the dispute to your satisfaction, you may send a brief statement to the credit rating agency to keep in your file, explaining why you think the record is inaccurate. The credit rating agency must include your statement about disputed information in a report it issues about you.
- You have a right to receive a record of all inquiries relating to a credit transaction initiated in 12 months preceding your request which resulted in the provision of a credit report.
- You may request in writing that the information contained in your file not be provided to a third party for marketing purposes.
- If you have reviewed your credit report with the credit rating agency and are dissatisfied, you may contact the Connecticut Department of Banking. You have a right to bring civil action against anyone who knowingly or willfully misuses file data or improperly obtains access to your file.

Consumer Agrees

- ➔ 1. REFUND POLICY: You agree that you are entitled to a refund of some or all of your money if, after remaining a "client in good standing" with Trinity Enterprises, LLC or 6 months the term "Difference" in the following equation is a positive number: Total RETAINER paid to Trinity Enterprises, LLC minus the service fees and credit restoration yielded (i.e., number of items corrected and or deleted per credit bureau x $50) = difference. If the term Difference is a positive number, this number is the amount you will receive as a refund of the retainer. If the term Difference is a negative number, no refund will be issued (you have received services greater than what you have paid for).
2. You agree to send Trinity Enterprises, LLC copies of your credit reports from all three major credit bureaus (Experian, Equifax and Trans-Union) upon signing up. You also agree to send updated copies of your credit reports as they are received while you are a client of Trinity Enterprises, LLC. You also agree to forward all correspondence received from the credit bureau or creditors to Trinity Enterprises, LLC. You understand that these items are required for our firm to provide our services.
3. IMPORTANT CREDIT MONITORING: In addition, your signature indicates Trinity Enterprises, LLC has explained the importance and requirement of registering with the credit monitoring service provider suggested by Trinity Enterprises, LLC based on your credit needs at

4. CANCELATION POLICY: You understand that you may cancel this agreement for any reason without any penalty or obligation provided cancellation occurs before midnight of the fifth business day that you sign this agreement and become a client of Trinity Enterprises, LLC. Cancellation must be communicated in writing to Trinity Enterprises, LLC, 1870 Aloma Avenue Suite 200, Winter Park FL, 32789 or by sending an email to customerservice@trinityenterprisesllc.com. Please be sure to include your name, client number or social security number and reason for canceling.
5. In addition I also grant a limited Power of Authority to Trinity Enterprises, LLC for the following: Request credit reports on my behalf, challenge and verify various information points on my credit report(s), and contact and confer with creditors on my behalf, as needed.
6. Additionally, I understand this process may require my signature on the letters sent to the Credit Bureaus, which I fully authorize Trinity Enterprises, LLC to sign on my behalf. I also understand that the process may take, by nature of the FCRA, 30 – 90 days, but, no more than 6 months, of which there will be no charge above and beyond the initial fees referenced in this agreement, regardless of the additional work necessary to ensure maximum results.

HOLD HARMLESS AGREEMENT AND AFFILIATE/PARTNER COMPANY DISCLAIMER

Trinity Enterprises LLC is not responsible or directly affiliated with the companies who provide "lines of credit." Furthermore, Trinity Enterprises has no control over the approval and/or denial of credit. Though the companies providing the lines of credit have been tested, and proven to be effective; with previous clients, Trinity Enterprises is not liable for individual results. Should any concerns arise from the relationship with the company providing the line of credit, these concerns should be handled directly with the company providing the line of credit.

By signing below, I understand that establishing a line of credit with a company is a "best practices" strategy recommended by Trinity Enterprises; and Trinity Enterprises cannot guarantee a certain credit score increase by establishing lines of credit.
